This appeal was listed along with several hundred other Automatic Teller Machine related appeals. These appeals were previously stayed pending the outcome of the Supreme Court's judgment in Cardtronics UK Ltd and Others v Sykes (VO) and Others [2020] UKSC 21.

Following the release of the Supreme Court's judgment, the tribunal lifted its stay and the Valuation Officer undertook a list maintenance exercise.

Mr Dent, who appeared for the Valuation Officer, advised the tribunal that in a lot of cases more than one appeal had been lodged against the same list entry. Having reviewed and where appropriate amended and/or deleted the appealed entries and having undertaken discussions with various interested parties, a number of outstanding appeals were considered by the respondent to be redundant. This is one such appeal and Mr Dent asked the tribunal to dismiss the appeal.

As the appellant did not appear and was not represented and did not provide the tribunal with any evidence to show that the appellant had an arguable case, the appeal was dismissed.
